Teacher Assistants in public schools are generally not paid during the summer months when school is not in session. Instead, you are hired on a 10-month contract basis each school year, and paid only for the months when students are in class. Individual school boards may or may not pay Teacher Assistants for holidays and professional development days.

Some Teacher Assistants belong to unions. Union representatives negotiate wages and benefits, such as dental coverage and paid sick days, on behalf of their members.

Networking, Volunteering and Temporary Agencies

Many positions are filled by people who have been recommended by someone they know. Networking, working as a volunteer or registering with a temporary employment agency are good ways of helping you find jobs and meet people in your industry.

Networking and the Hidden Job Market:

When looking for work, be sure to talk to friends, relatives and neighbours. They may know someone who is hiring! Working as a volunteer, attending events, and joining clubs and associations are good ways to gain "Canadian experience." They are also good ways to meet people to learn about the local job market.
